

Something seem phishy?

Hackers look for new ways to steal your personal info all the time. Here are tips to protect your data:

Activate multi-factor authentication on all your account settings.

Set your social media accounts to private so hackers can't learn your personal details.

Never click suspicious links. Go directly to a vendor's website or call to confirm details.

Weill Cornell Medicine
ITS

Scan for more tips

